Progress Note

Comments: Pt had obvious new tattoo covering most of his face. He spoke of it being related to Wicca and express himself. His mood appeared somewhat high and a bit giddy. He described his mood as upbeat and boyant. He spoke of finishing up building maintenance and getting transferred to another facility because his level has dropped. He spoke of speaking with sister on the phone about how she will help him when he gets out and his fear of believing that she will be able to maintain for that long given her past betrayal of promises because of her drug use.
